Your Responsibilities

Application: You undertake that all information that you provide to us is truthful and accurate. You will supply such original or certified copy documents as we may reasonably request, or confirmations from acceptable sources, in order to verify the information that you provide to us.

Travel: All travel, visa, insurance, and other costs that you may incur in participation in a Program are your responsibility and will not be met or reimbursed by us. Non-domestic Participants are responsible for arranging their own visas in good time prior to commencement of the Program. Non-domestic Participants are also responsible for organizing suitable travel insurance. We are not responsible for reimbursing to you any travel, visa, insurance or other costs that you may have incurred if you do not attend the Program for any reason, or costs that you may incur if your participation in the Program is terminated early for any reason.

Suitable Behavior: You will at all times during the application, enrollment and matching processes and during the Program behave in a suitable manner towards Host Companies, their staff, other Participants and our staff. You must observe all the lawful directions of the Host Company including, without limitation, health and safety regulations, not entering restricted areas and not making or keeping copies of documents. Inappropriate behavior includes, without limitation, bringing Host Companies, their staff, other Participants, our staff or us into disrepute. We reserve the right to terminate your participation in the Program if in our sole discretion your behavior subjects Host Companies, their staff, other Participants, our staff or us to any derogatory treatment or brings or has the potential to bring Host Companies, their staff, other Participants, our staff or us into disrepute.

Our Responsibilities

Placement with a Host Company: Subject to payment of the fees, we will place you in an internship with a Host Company in your primary or secondary program location and primary or secondary industry by the Placement Deadline. If we have been unable to place you in an internship with a Host Company by the Placement Deadline associated with your chosen program, in circumstances where we deem at our sole discretion you have given full co-operation, you will be entitled to cancel your participation in the Program and receive a refund of all fees paid as set out in the Cancellation and Refunds section below.

Out-of-pocket Expenses, Compensation & Employment: During the Program, your Host Company may wish to provide an allowance for out-of-pocket expenses (such as daily lunch or travel costs incurred) and/or compensation. The provision of any allowance and/or compensation is the sole responsibility of the Host Company. During or after the Program, your Host Company may wish to extend an offer of employment to you. The provision of any offer of employment is determined at the sole discretion of the Host Company.

Accommodation Package: The following conditions apply to participants selecting the optional Accommodation Package only. You acknowledge that accommodation is provided for a single person only and if you arrive with others they may not be permitted to share the accommodation with you. You also acknowledge that accommodation and catering provisions (if any), which may be in the form of catered dining hall access, meal vouchers or self-catered cooking facilities, will vary according to program location. You are expected to leave your accommodation in the same condition as when you arrived and acknowledge that you are liable to us or any third parties for any costs arising from damage caused during your stay. In the event of a change in third-party costs associated with the provision of the Accommodation Package, including but not limited to a change in pricing or availability or accommodation provider, the Accommodation Package Fee may be subject to alteration without notice.

Application, Enrollment & Placement Processes

Application process: Following receipt of your application, we will decide if you are suitable for enrollment and if so we will invite you to enroll. You will be provided a limited time to accept your invitation to enroll.

Enrollment process: Following receipt of your enrollment and registration, we will invite you to complete a Program Consultation. During the Program Consultation, you will be required to select a Program (e.g. Global Explorer Program), a Program Season (e.g. summer 2018), and Payment Plan (e.g. Pay Now). You will also be required to select one primary option and at least one secondary option with respect to Program Location (e.g. New York) and Internship Industry (e.g. Banking & Financial Services). You will be provided a limited time to schedule and attend your Program Consultation. Please note the available options set out in the Program Options section below. Option availability may be subject to alteration without notice.

Placement process: Following receipt of your full payment of the Program Fee or first installment payment of the Program Fee, where you have selected the Pay Now or Pay Later plans respectively, we will invite you to complete a Career Consultation. You will be provided a limited time to schedule and attend your Career Consultation. The placement process will commence following the completion of your Career Consultation.

Co-operation during the application, enrollment and placement processes: You acknowledge that any failure to pay fees or complete actions within designated time frames or any other action that may detriment our ability to match and place you with a

Host Company (including, but not limited to, failure to respond to communications in a timely manner, failure to schedule consultations in a timely manner, failure to attend scheduled consultations or interviews or rejection of interviews or placement offers matching your program option selections, or otherwise impeding or delaying the placement process without reasonable cause) may be treated as lack of co-operation and impact your entitlement to a refund of any fees paid as set out in the Cancellation and Refunds section below.

Payment of Fees

Enrollment fee payment: The Enrollment Fee is $450 USD and is payable on enrollment. Enrollment Fees may be made electronically via debit or credit card via the Enrollment Form.

Program fee payment: The Program Fee is payable according to the Pay Now or Pay Later payment plans as set out below.

If you select the Pay Now plan, the full balance of the Program Fee is payable within 5 days following your Program Consultation. If you select the Pay Later plan, a $550 USD first installment of the Program Fee is payable within 5 days following your Program Consultation. The full balance of the Program Fee is payable within 5 days of your acceptance of an internship placement or no later than 30 days prior to the start of the Program, whichever is sooner. Please note a 12.5 per cent surcharge applies to the Pay Later plan. We may at our sole discretion make a custom installment plan available if requested by you prior to Enrollment. All Enrollment Fees may be made electronically via debit or credit card via the First Installment Form. Program Fee payments may be made via check or wire transfer with no handling. Alternatively, Program Fee payments may be made via debit or credit card subject to a 4.75 per cent handling fee.

Your consents and acknowledgements: You consent to us beginning work to finalize your participation in the Program immediately following your acceptance of an internship offer and you acknowledge that we may make irrevocable financial commitments on your behalf concerning your participation in a Program (including, but not limited to, arrangements concerning your Host Company, your participation in Program Events and Excursions and, where applicable, your Accommodation Package) immediately following your acceptance of an internship offer. You acknowledge therefore that following acceptance of an internship offer, regardless of whether you attend the Program, your obligation to settle the balance of the Program Fee is also irrevocable. Please note the “Cancellation by you” conditions set out in the Cancellation and Refunds section below.

You acknowledge that any payment delinquency may result in a hold being placed on your participation in the Program and the forfeiture of any right to a refund of any fees paid. In the event of non-payment of the full balance of the Program Fee by the Participant by the payment due date, the Participant shall pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 12.5% above the prevailing London Interbank Offered Rate. Interest shall accrue daily from the due date until the settlement of any overdue amount. The Participant shall pay the interest together with the overdue amount plus any debt collection charges and/or legal fees incurred.

Cancellation and Refunds

Cancellation by You: If you wish to cancel your participation in the program after the Placement Deadline associated with your chosen program, in circumstances where in our sole discretion you have given full co-operation during the application, enrollment and placement processes, you will be eligible to transfer your participation in a CI program to a later date or claim a full refund of both the Enrollment Fee and the Program Fee.

If you wish to cancel your participation in the program at any time before the Placement Deadline no refund of the Enrollment Fee or Program Fee or part thereof will be given.

If at any time after you have accepted an internship offer and you wish to cancel your participation in the program no refund of the Enrollment Fee or Program Fee will be given. No concessions. Requests for refunds not received within 30 days of the commencement of your chosen program will be forfeited.

Cancellation by Us: We may decline any application without stating our reasons. If during the course of the application, enrollment or placement process we determine in our sole discretion that you are not fully co-operating or behaving suitably (note the “Suitable Behavior” and “Co-operation during the application, enrollment and placement processes” conditions set out above) we reserve the right to cancel your participation in the Program and retain the whole of any fees that you have paid. If during the course of the application, enrollment or placement process we discover that any information that you have provided to us is inaccurate or untruthful in a way that we consider is material to the decision to offer you enrollment or a placement, we reserve the right to cancel your participation in the Program and retain the whole of any fees that you have paid.

Program Cancellations: We reserve the right to cancel all or part of a Program if in our sole discretion we consider that all or part of the Program is untenable or impracticable. Program Events and Excursions: Events and Excursions are provided at our discretion, and are subject to alteration or cancellation without notice.
